The Bespoke Guardians Swindon Wildcats are thrilled to confirm that Bowman House Business Centre are the latest face to join the family of sponsors at the Wildcats after taking up a sponsorship package for 21/22.

Their package will contain a rink-side advertising board, two panes of glass branding as well as becoming player sponsors of Jack Goodchild for the duration of the 21/22 season.

Stuart Berry, Business Park Manager at Bowman House told us:

“Bowman House Business Centre are proud to be associated with the Wildcats as a new sponsor and are really excited about the upcoming 21/22 season”.

Bowman House provide a range of cost-effective Office, Co-working, Virtual Office and Meeting Room solutions in Royal Wootton Bassett. They create the right environment for all their clients which in turn then allows their clients to focus on their business.

Their managed private offices are all accessible 24/7 making them flexible for business from all backgrounds. Each office and co-working space offer dedicated, ultra-fast broadband and a fully configurable phone system. There is even a daily visit from a food van to grab your lunch to have in one of the break-out rooms.

Their location is ideal with the site being just off Junction 16 of the M4 and they have ample free onsite parking.

Commercial Manager Sally Price is excited to welcome another new company to the sponsor family:

“It’s great to welcome Bowman House on board for the 21/22 season. They are a fantastic company and I’m really excited to start building a strong working relationship and to help promote their business into the new season”.
